

God's Providence

AND THE BIBLICAL NARRATIVE

As believers, we have a divine narrative to follow and to help us filter and process all other narratives.

1. THE DIVINE NARRATIVE

- a. Genesis 1:26-31 – God's creative work
- b. Genesis 10, 11, 12 – Beginnings of the history of the nations
- c. Acts 17:22-27 – Paul addresses the Athenian narrative

2. THE HUMAN NARRATIVE

- a. Genesis 3:5 – Man creates his own narrative
- b. Romans 5:12 – Man's self-centered narrative is disobedience to God
- c. Genesis 6:1-8 – Man's untethered, unleashed narrative
- d. Romans 1:25, 29-31 – Man's utopia narrative

3. THE REDEMPTIVE NARRATIVE

- a. Romans 5:15-17
- b. Ephesians 2:1-22
- c. Matthew 5:2-12
- d. Revelation 7:9-12

God's Providence

AND THE BIBLICAL NARRATIVE

As believers, we have a divine narrative to follow and to help us filter and process all other narratives.

1. THE DIVINE NARRATIVE

- a. Genesis 1:26-31 – God's creative work
- b. Genesis 10, 11, 12 – Beginnings of the history of the nations
- c. Acts 17:22-27 – Paul addresses the Athenian narrative

2. THE HUMAN NARRATIVE

- a. Genesis 3:5 – Man creates his own narrative
- b. Romans 5:12 – Man's self-centered narrative is disobedience to God
- c. Genesis 6:1-8 – Man's untethered, unleashed narrative
- d. Romans 1:25, 29-31 – Man's utopia narrative

3. THE REDEMPTIVE NARRATIVE

- a. Romans 5:15-17
- b. Ephesians 2:1-22
- c. Matthew 5:2-12
- d. Revelation 7:9-12

